

Arm Protection Sleeves

Custom Arm Warmers and Arm Coolers

Genesis / Volare Series

Evaporative Cooling technology actively lowers skin temperature upon contact with skin. Engineered from high filament yarns, this impressive fabric keeps you cool in the heat and wicks moisture to keep you dry. Excellent stretch and recovery memory to move with the body.

Produce the Ultimate dimension in convection cooling. Use your clean water bottle (the without the chemistry) & pour on your sun sleeves to cool as you move.

Arm warmers are made of a soft fleecy fabric. Hit the sweet spot providing warmth on slightly chillier days with an elastic gripper cuff up top so they stay comfortable against your skin and don't migrate downward.

They give you more protection and warmth without feeling thick or heavy.

Also try both styles as base layers.

Ultraviolet Protection Factor (UPF)

UPF is like the sun protective factor SPF used on sunscreen lotion bottles and fabrics today.
